

"COX ALMOST SURE TO CAPTURE OHIO AND BE ELECTED"

Tennessee Solon Predicts That "As Ohio Goes, So Goes Nation"—Declares Democrats Gaining Rapidly

Not only will Ohio supply the next president of the United States but the Buckeye state also will determine which of its two sons, Cox and Harding, shall occupy the presidential chair, according to U. S. Senator K. D. McKellar.

"The man who carries Ohio this year will be elected president, and Cox is almost certain to carry Ohio by a large majority," declared Senator McKellar Monday. The senator is spending a few days at home in Memphis. He is on personal business, but probably will do some campaigning while here.

"You ask me if Cox is going to be elected," Senator McKellar said. "It is too early yet to predict. But his chances are excellent. Until a week ago there was a decided trend to the Republicans. It looked bad trend to Cox and we must keep that trend going. If we do, he will be elected."

"Harding's vacillating policy on the league has disgusted his party associates. The daily publication of his meaningless generalities has made the people generally think he is too weak for the job. The Republicans generally never heard of him until he was nominated and take little interest in him. He has no personal following and no record of achievement. Borah has already rebelled and has already rebelled and will follow Johnson and Knox soon will follow. Borah is going to force Harding to say whether he is against the league absolutely or whether he has a side issue with the league reservations. Borah is a man of great ability and while I differ with him absolutely on the league, I respect his views much more than I do the weak and vacillating views of Harding."

Too Many Cat Fights.

"The Republicans are having cat fights in Illinois, Indiana, West Virginia, South Dakota, Iowa, New Hampshire and in other states. In Illinois the Lowden and Thompson factions are fighting to a finish and my good friend Jim Ham Lewis, Democratic candidate for governor, has a splendid chance to win. He is not only able, but lucky."

"In Indiana Taggart's chances are good, and Democrats believe they will carry the state for Cox."

"In West Virginia the Republicans have two candidates for governor and the Democrats have only one. Surely we should win there."

"David Lawrence, the newspaper writer following Cox, practically concedes that Cox will carry Nevada, Utah, Arizona, New Mexico, Montana and Colorado. If Borah is even lukewarm toward Harding, Idaho will go Democratic. If Johnson likes the coop, as he may since the Borah defection, Cox will carry California."

"My own judgment is that it all depends on Ohio. If Cox carries Ohio, he will win. The Republicans claim it by 200,000. This is a pretty weak claim. Cox is intensely strong in Ohio, and has been for a long time. He is making a great fight. He is genuine. He is popular to a degree and is almost certain to carry Ohio by a big majority."

"There is no doubt about Tennessee, nor any other southern state. The chances of our carrying the next United States senate are fine."

SCOUT HOPE HELD FOR DROP IN COAL PRICES

Rumors of a break in the retail price of coal in the near future were denied by local coal dealers Saturday. There has been no change in the price or the situation at the mines to justify the expectation of lower prices, they asserted.

With the railroads negotiating for their own use practically one half of the coal shipped from the mines to dealers over the country, there is little prospect of improvement in the retail coal situation, one dealer said. The future trend of prices, it was said, depends largely upon the car situation, which is very acute.

LOCAL MINISTERS WILL HELP MAKE COLLEGE SUCCESS

Protestant Pastors Association Indorses Plans for Campaign—Mass Meeting Inspires Workers.

The "College for Memphis" campaign received the unanimous indorsement of the Protestant Pastors' association, Monday morning, when the plans for the movement were presented to the ministers at their first fall session, at the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. by Rev. A. H. Curry, D.D., pastor of Second Presbyterian church, 111 S. Second, of Louisville, Ky., executive secretary of the Presbyterian educational board, made a short address in the interest of the campaign. Following Dr. Curry's address, Dr. A. L. Sweet, pastor of the First Baptist, led the ministers in a special prayer for the success of the college.

First place in the program was given to the representatives of the college enterprise, and in short talks, the ministers present conveyed their enthusiasm for the project and their determination to help make the drive a success.

At one of the greatest Presbyterian mass meetings ever assembled in Shelby county, the various congregations of the church in Memphis, formally dedicated their most earnest efforts, Sunday night, to the campaign to bring new southwestern Presbyterian university to this city. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity and hundreds were turned away at the door.

In the undertaking of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce to raise $500,000 to bring about the removal of the college from Clarksville to Memphis, the Presbyterians Sunday night clearly manifested their determination to take the lead.

Dr. C. H. Williamson, pastor of First church, presided, and introduced as speakers for the evening, four of the denomination's most eminent leaders in educational matters: Dr. John M. Vandermeulen, of

This Is Better Than Laxatives

One NR Tablet Each Night For A Week Will Correct Your Constipation and Make Constant Dosing Unnecessary. Try It.

Poor digestion and assimilation mean a poorly nourished body and low vitality. Poor elimination means clogged bowels, fermentation, putrefaction and the formation of poisonous gases which are absorbed by the blood and carried through the body.

The result is weak, headache, dizziness, coated tongue, inactive liver, bilious attacks, loss of energy, nervousness, back aches, constipation, blood, slow circulation, pimples, skin diseases, and often times serious illness.

Ordinary laxatives, purges and cathartics—salts, oils, candles and the like—may relieve for a few hours, but real, lasting benefit can only come through use of medicine that tones up and strengthens the digestive as well as the eliminative organs.

Get a 25c box of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) and take one tablet each night for a week. Relief will follow the very first dose, but a few days will elapse before you feel and realize the fullest benefit. When you get straightened out and feel just right again you need not take medicine every day—occasional NR Tablets will then keep your system in good condition and you will always feel your best. Remember, keeping well is easier and cheaper than getting well.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) are sold, guaranteed and recommended by your druggist.
